

MODERN SLAVERY POLICY STATEMENT

Calder Conferences is committed to driving out acts of modern day slavery from within its own business and that from within its supply chains.

The company acknowledges responsibility to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the organisation and customers.

The organisation structure of the business is a family owned SME that provides meeting, conference and events booking services to its customers. The supply chain of hotels, conference venues and third sector meeting space make up the supply chains within Calder Conferences Ltd.

As part of the companies due diligence processes into slavery and human trafficking, the supplier approval process will incorporate a review of the controls undertaken by the supplier. Outbound of the UK suppliers are potentially more at risk for slavery / human trafficking issues. The level of management control required for these sources will be continually monitored.

The company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in the slavery or human trafficking.

The company directors and senior management will take the responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide adequate resources (training, etc) and investment to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organisation within its supply chains.

This policy statement will be reviewed annually and published.
